

TOPIC:

Child and Adolescent Disorders

PURPOSE:

To discuss the various childhood and adolescent disorders that impact children and their families and what this means to law enforcement officers as first responders.

GOAL:

To develop an understanding of the different childhood and adolescent disorders that affect children today, and to understand the effect of these disorders on their behaviors.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Identify the different mental illness that effect children and adolescents.

Identify the difference between a behavior and a mental illness.

Identify some intervention techniques to address a child or adolescent in crisis.

RECOMMENDED TRAINING TIME:

Two hours is recommended for this module.